 - ii) reward, loyalty, co-branding or privileges programs and related products and services;
 - iii) financial or banking products and services offered by our business partners (the names of such partners will be provided to you); and
 - iv) donations and contributions for charitable and/or non-profit making purposes;
 - (c) the above services, products and subjects may be marketed by PANTHERTRADE and/or the following persons:
 - i) any member of the Group;
 - ii) third party financial institutions, underwriters, securities, commodities and investment service providers;
 - iii) providers of third party reward, loyalty, co-branding or privileges program (the names of such co-branding partners will be provided to you);

- iv) our business partners;
- v) charitable and/or non-profit organisations;
- (d) in addition to promoting the above services, products and subjects, PANTHERTRADE may provide the personal data mentioned in paragraph 23(a) to any of the persons as mentioned in paragraph 23(c) above for the purpose of promoting their services, products and subjects. In order for us to do so, we need to obtain your consent (which includes an indication of no objection) for this purpose;
- (e) if you do not wish PANTHERTRADE to use or provide your personal data to other persons for the direct marketing purposes set out in paragraph 23(d), please notify our Customer Service Department; and
- (f) we may receive money or other property in return for providing your personal data to the other persons in paragraph 23(d) and, when requesting your consent or no objection we will inform you if we will receive any money or other property in return for providing the personal data to the other persons.

Providing Another Person's Personal Data

24. Where you provide to us personal data about another person, you must give to that person a copy of this Statement and, in particular, tell him/her that you have provided us with their personal data and how we may use his/her personal data.

Personal Data Protection Measures

25. All personal data provided to PANTHERTRADE will be securely stored with restricted access by authorized personnel only. We utilize encryption/security software for data transmission so as to protect your data via encrypting it in a secure format to ensure its privacy and security from unauthorised access or disclosure, accidental loss, alteration or destruction.
26. PANTHERTRADE implements protective measures to safeguard and secure personal data to ensure it is protected against unauthorized or accidental access, processing, erasure, loss or use; and prevent any personal data from being kept longer than is necessary for processing of the data. These measures include the following :
- (a) access or use of such data is limited to authorized staff or agents on a "need to know" basis and such data is accessed utilizing secured methods (e.g. personal data is encrypted when necessary);
 - (b) we do not distribute your personal data to other persons except to the classes of transferees set out in this Statement and for the purposes set out in this Statement;
 - (c) the use and transfer of your personal data between members of the Group is subject to strict internal security standards, confidentiality policies, privacy laws and other applicable laws;
 - (d) we ensure that our employees fully comply with such standards, policies and laws; and
 - (e) we provide training to our staff on the proper handling of your personal data.
27. As we further develop new products and services, we will continue to make every effort to ensure that your personal data is properly used and protected.
28. Nevertheless, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure.

Although PANTHERTRADE will do its best to protect your personal data, PANTHERTRADE cannot guarantee the security of data transmitted to our website and/or the Platform. Once your personal data is received, PANTHERTRADE will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorized access.

Data Access and Correction Requests

29. According to and in accordance with the terms of the PDPO, you have the right to:
- (a) obtain information regarding the processing of your personal data and access the personal data which we hold about you;
 - (b) request that we rectify your personal data if it is inaccurate or incomplete; and
 - (c) lodge a complaint with the privacy commissioner for personal data if you think that any of your data privacy rights have been infringed by us.
30. We will take practical steps as needed to erase personal data that is no longer required for the purpose for which the data is used, unless erasure is prohibited by applicable law or is not in the public interest. You may ask that we erase some or all of your personal data, but please note that it may not be legally or operationally possible for us to do so.
31. If there is a change to any of the personal data that you have provided to us, please contact our Customer Service Department.
32. You should send written requests for access to, and correction of, your personal data to us by email at:
- Attention: Customer Service Department
Panthertrade (Hong Kong) Limited
Email: support@panthertrade.com
- Please indicate your name, PANTHERTRADE account number and contact number for us to follow up with your request. You may be asked to provide additional information to authenticate your identity in order for us to follow up your request.
33. In accordance with the terms of the PDPO, PANTHERTRADE reserves the right to charge a reasonable fee for processing any data request.
34. PANTHERTRADE will take reasonable steps to ensure the accuracy of your personal data held by PANTHERTRADE. If PANTHERTRADE becomes aware that the personal data is inaccurate, PANTHERTRADE will not use such data and will notify any third party to which such personal data has been transferred regarding the same.
35. Nothing in this Statement shall limit your rights under the PDPO.

Retention Period of Personal Data

36. We will not keep personal data longer than is necessary for the fulfillment of the purpose for which it was collected unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by applicable laws, rules and regulations, but no shorter than five (5) years. The retention period of personal data collected depends on different factors, including:

- (a) usage: we may have to continue to retain the personal data for the purpose(s) for which it was collected for; and
- (b) legal obligations: there may be minimum retention periods for that personal data, as stipulated in applicable laws and regulations.

Termination or cancellation

37. Should your relationship with PANTHERTRADE be cancelled or terminated at any time, PANTHERTRADE shall cease processing your personal data as soon as reasonably practicable following such cancellation or termination, provided that PANTHERTRADE may keep copies of the data as is reasonably required for reasonable purposes, such reasonable purposes shall include keeping of records, use in relation to any actual or potential dispute, complying with applicable laws and regulations, and protecting PANTHERTRADE's rights, property or safety, or the rights, property or safety of PANTHERTRADE's employees and agents.

Note : In case of any discrepancy between the English and Chinese versions of this Statement, the English version shall prevail.

Appendix 1 Cookies Policy

PANTHERTRADE's website and/or the Platform may use cookies to store information on your computer/mobile device. This policy explains how Panthertrade (Hong Kong) Limited or its affiliates (together "PANTHERTRADE", "we" or "us") use cookies and it may be amended, from time to time, without notice. By using our website/application represents that you agree to the placement of cookies on your computer/mobile device in accordance with the terms of this policy. If you do not wish to accept cookies from our website/application please either disable cookies or refrain from using our website/application. Please note that by disabling cookies in your browser settings our website and/or the Platform may not function properly.

1. What are Cookies?

A cookie is a text-only string of information that a website/application transfers to the cookie file of the browser on your computer's hard disk/mobile device so that the website/application can recognise you when you revisit and remember certain information about you. This can include which pages you have visited, choices you have made from menus, any specific information you have entered into forms and the time and date of your visit.

2. Types of Cookie

There are two main types of cookies:

1. Session cookies: these are temporary cookies that expire at the end of a browser session; that is, when you leave the website/application. Session cookies allow the website/application to recognise you as you navigate between pages during a single browser session and allow you to use the website/application most efficiently.
2. Persistent cookies: in contrast to session cookies, persistent cookies are stored on your equipment between browsing sessions until expiry or deletion. They therefore enable the website/application to recognise you on your return, remember your preferences, and tailor services to you.

In addition to session cookies and persistent cookies, there may be other cookies which are set by the website/application which you have chosen to visit, such as our website and/or the Platform, in order to provide us or third parties with information.

3. Our use of Cookies

We use session cookies to:

- help us maintain security and verify your details whilst you use the website/application as you navigate from page to page, which enables you to avoid having to re-enter your details each time you enter a new page.

We use persistent cookies to:

- help us recognise you as a unique user when you return to our website/application so that you do not have to input your details multiple times as you move between our pages or services;

- remember how you have customised your use of our website and/or the Platform, such as the region that you are in; and
- collect and compile anonymous, aggregated information for statistical and evaluation purposes to help us understand how users use the website/application and help us improve the structure of our website/application.

Many cookies are designed to give you optimal usage of the website/application. For example, we use cookies to enable you to improve your user experience when using our website/application, e.g. a cookie which recognises if your browser supports specific technology features. This helps, for example, in enabling web pages/application to be loaded more quickly when you request the download of a large file.

Some of our cookies may collect and store your personal information, enable the website/application to recognise you on your return and remember your preferences setting. We are committed to respecting and protecting your privacy and will ensure that all personal information collected by us is kept and treated in accordance with our privacy policy.

4. Refusing Cookies on this Site

Most browsers are initially set to accept cookies. However, you have the ability to disable cookies if you wish, generally through changing your internet software browsing settings. It may also be possible to configure your browser settings to enable acceptance of specific cookies or to notify you each time a new cookie is about to be stored on your computer/mobile device enabling you to decide whether to accept or reject the cookie. To manage your use of cookies there are various resources available to you, for example the "Help" section on your browser may assist you. You can also disable or delete the stored data used by technology similar to cookies, such as local shared objects or flash cookies, by managing your browser's "add-on settings" or visiting the website of its manufacturer. As our cookies allow you to access some of our website/application's features we recommend that you leave cookies enabled. Otherwise, if cookies are disabled, it may mean that you experience reduced functionality or will be prevented from using our website and/or the Platform altogether.
